

HISTORICAL HOUSES

Duxbury Clipper, Thursday, January 27, 1983

"The Benjamin Freeman House"

CIRCA 1796

Magnificently Restored Federal with 4 fireplaces, 2½ new baths, modern kitchen, oversized dining room with stunning 6' fireplace with beehive oven, large screened-in porch with skylights, etc. Prime location with distant view of the bay. Well over an acre of gorgeous grounds with many flowering trees and shrubs. One of the town's best preserved "old homes" standing beside Standish St., the old road out of the 'Nook. Financing assistance available from anxious owner. Proudly offered at $184,900.